Fight Details: Shakan Pitters vs Bradley Rea

- Date: [Insert Official Fight Date]
- Venue: [Insert Location – likely a UK arena]
- Division: Middleweight (160 lbs)
- Broadcast: [Insert Official Broadcaster, e.g., Sky Sports, DAZN, TNT Sports]

Fighter Profiles

Shakan Pitters

- Record: 18 Wins (5 KOs), 3 Losses
- Height: 6'6" (198 cm)
- Style: Orthodox
- Notable Wins: Dec Spelman, Reece Cartwright

Shakan Pitters is known for his incredible reach and rangy style. At 6'6", he is unusually tall for a middleweight, which gives him a strategic advantage in keeping opponents at bay. Pitters is a former British light-heavyweight champion and brings experience, poise, and technical skill to the ring.

Bradley Rea

- Record: 16 Wins (6 KOs), 1 Loss
- Style: Orthodox
- Age: 26

Bradley Rea, the Manchester native, is a young, explosive fighter with sharp combinations and fast footwork. He's built a solid reputation with his aggressive fighting style and impressive stamina. Rea is looking to bounce back strong after his only professional defeat, and a win against Pitters would be a huge statement.

Fight Preview: What to Expect

The contrast in styles is what makes Pitters vs Rea such a compelling matchup. Pitters will look to utilize his height and reach advantage to control the distance and keep Rea on the outside. Rea, on the other hand, will need to close the gap, fight on the inside, and apply pressure from the first bell.

Expect a tactical first few rounds as both fighters try to establish dominance. Pitters' jab could be the key to victory, but if Rea can work inside and land heavy body shots, the momentum could shift quickly.
