

Floyd Schofield vs Tevin Farmer Live Streams Jake Paul Fight - June 28, 2025

An exciting lightweight clash is set to unfold as rising star Floyd “Kid Austin” Schofield takes on former world champion Tevin Farmer in a bout that blends youth, speed, and high-level boxing skill. This is more than just another fight — it’s a pivotal crossroads encounter. Schofield aims to continue his ascent through the 135-pound ranks, while Farmer looks to reestablish himself among the division’s elite after a lengthy layoff.

Floyd Schofield (17-0, 12 KOs) has quickly become one of the most talked-about prospects in boxing. Known for his flashy style, sharp combinations, and confident ring presence, Schofield has impressed fans and critics alike with his maturity and poise. Trained by his father and backed by Golden Boy Promotions, “Kid Austin” now takes a big leap in competition. This fight will show whether he’s ready for the top tier of the lightweight division or still in development mode.

On the other side stands Tevin Farmer (30-5-1, 6 KOs), a slick defensive wizard and former IBF super featherweight champion. Known for his exceptional head movement, ring generalship, and grit, Farmer returns to the spotlight after dealing with injuries and promotional setbacks. Once considered one of the most avoided fighters in his weight class, Farmer brings a wealth of experience and high boxing IQ to the table. While he may not pack devastating power, his ability to outbox and outthink opponents has earned him respect throughout the sport.

The matchup pits raw talent against polished experience. Schofield will likely look to push the pace, test Farmer’s timing, and impose his youth and energy. Farmer, meanwhile, will try to frustrate the younger fighter, force mistakes, and turn the bout into a technical showcase. If Schofield can break through the veteran’s defenses, it would mark a significant step forward in his career. But if Farmer can turn back the clock, it would be a massive statement that he's still a force to be reckoned with.

Expect a battle of wits, reflexes, and strategy — one that could shape the lightweight division's future.
